

Response to Reviewer 5 Comments

(round 2)

Point 1: Is the content succinctly described and contextualized with respect to previous and present theoretical background and empirical research (if applicable) on the topic? Must be improved.

Response 1: Thank you for the comment. The manuscript has been revised. The literature review has been improved, and new references have been added (text in blue).

Point 2: Are the research design, questions, hypotheses and methods clearly stated? Can be improved.

Response 2: Thank you for the comment. The method section has been improved (text in blue).

Point 3: The text has some improvements, but there are some points that still demand more attention.

Response 3: Thank you for the comment. The manuscript has been entirely revised. We believe that the reviewers' suggestions have been very helpful in improving the manuscript.